Date Filed	#	Docket Text
09/09/2025		MINUTE ORDER: The Court held a hearing on Plaintiffs' 30 Motion for Preliminary Injunction on September 5, 2025. At the hearing, the Court informed the parties that it may require the administrative record to resolve Plaintiffs' Motion. Counsel for the Defendants requested 45 days to produce the administrative record in the event the Court ordered such production. The Court has determined that it requires the administrative record to resolve Plaintiffs' Motion. As the Court will more fully explain in its written ruling on Plaintiffs' Motion, Plaintiffs have shown a substantial likelihood that at least one Plaintiff, the Center for Taxpayer Rights, has Article III standing based on the harms to its core activities that are described in paragraphs 40 through 54 of the [30-8] Declaration of Nina E. Olson. Furthermore, Plaintiffs have shown a substantial likelihood that the IRS has taken final agency action by adopting and implementing a policy of disclosing the addresses of tens of thousands of taxpayers to Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") based on a representation from ICE that a single ICE employee is (or a small number of ICE employees are) "personally and directly engaged" in investigating each of those taxpayers for committing a criminal offense under 8 U.S.C. § 1253(a)(1). Because resolving the balance of Plaintiffs' Motion will require the Court to assess Plaintiffs' likelihood of success on the merits of their arbitrary-and-capricious claims under the Administrative Procedure Act, binding precedent compels the Court to call for the administrative record. See Am. Bioscience, Inc. v. Thompson , 243 F.3d 579, 582 (D.C. Cir. 2001) (directing that "before assessing... probability of success on the merits" in a case challenging agency action as arbitrary and capricious, district courts should "require[] the [agency] to file the administrative record" and "determine[] the grounds on which" the agency acted). Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that Defendants shall file the administrative record underlying the decisions challenged in this case on or before October 24, 2025 . If Defendants take the position that any document that would otherwise be part of the administrative record is subject to a privilege other than the deliberative process privilege, Defendants shall promptly file a motion for exemption from disclosure, which the Court shall resolve in due course. See In re United States , 583 U.S. at 32 ("[T]he District Court may not compel the Government to disclose any document that the Government believes is privileged without first providing the Government with the opportunity to argue the issue."). Plaintiffs shall file any objections to Defendants' designation of the administrative record, including objections that Defendants omitted information that should have been included, on or before October 27, 2025 . Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 9/9/2025. (lcckk3) (Entered: 09/09/2025)

09/05/2025		MINUTE ORDER: The Court held a hearing on Plaintiffs' 30 Motion for a Preliminary Injunction on September 5, 2025. The Court took the Motion under advisement and expresses no view at this time on its ultimate disposition. At the hearing, the parties represented that they would provide the Court with certain information. Based on those representations and the surrounding discussion, the Court ORDERS the Plaintiffs to provide the Court with details of the effect that the IRS's actions may have on federal funding received by the Center for Taxpayer Rights, including details regarding any federal reporting requirements associated with the funding. The Court further ORDERS the Defendants to provide (i) the name and title of the individual at the IRS who received ICE's June 27 data request, (ii) the name and title of the individual whom ICE identified as the "officer[] or employee[]"... personally and directly engaged in" the relevant criminal investigations or proceedings at issue in its June 27 request to the IRS, and (iii) the name and title of the individual who received the IRS's August 7 disclosure on behalf of ICE. Counsel for Defendants committed to notifying the Court within 24 hours if, while the Plaintiffs' motion is pending, the IRS either receives another request for information from DHS/ICE or makes plans to share additional information with DHS/ICE. Accordingly, Defendants are ORDERED to make such notification if the obligation arises. Finally, the Court discussed the possibility of ordering the administrative record. Counsel for Defendants requested 45 days to produce the record if the Court make such order. If the Court requires the administrative record to resolve Plaintiffs' Motion, it will order for it at a future date. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 9/5/2025. (lcckk3) (Entered: 09/05/2025)
