Civil Action No. 25-8516

U.S. IMMIGRATION AND CUSTOMS ENFORCEMENT, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY, EXECUTIVE OFFICE FOR IMMIGRATION REVIEW, and U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE,

Defendants.

COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

INTRODUCTION

1. This action under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552 et seq., seeks to compel Defendants U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”), U.S. Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”), Executive Office for Immigration Review (“EOIR”), and U.S. Department of Justice (“DOJ”) to disclose guidance for, and correspondence about, arresting noncitizens in immigration court in connection with dismissing their immigration cases—a new agency tactic that has triggered widespread public controversy and debate and resulted in courts finding numerous administration acts unlawful.

2. After President Trump took office, the EOIR and ICE rescinded policies barring ICE from making civil immigration arrests in or near immigration courts to advance the new administration’s agenda of mass deportations.

3. Since around May 20, 2025, ICE has been detaining noncitizens appearing for hearings in removal proceedings in immigration courts nationwide in substantial numbers.

4. Attorneys from ICE’s Office of Principal Legal Advisor (“OPLA”) have also been orally moving to dismiss these proceedings to funnel noncitizens into expedited removal, a process with fewer due process protections and no pathway to permanent residence.

5. The EOIR, in turn, has directed immigration judges to grant ICE’s motions to dismiss immediately in violation of several agency policies.

6. Federal courts across the country, from Oregon to New York, have deemed specific immigration court arrests unlawful, ordered ICE and DHS to release the arrested noncitizens, and decried these arrests and dismissals for violating due process. See, e.g., Lopez Benitez v. Francis, No. 25 Civ. 5937, 2025 WL 2371588, at *15 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 13, 2025) (“[T]reating attendance in immigration court as a game of detention roulette is not consistent with the constitutional guarantee of due process.”); Mata Velasquez v. Kurzdorfer, No. 25-cv-493, 2025 WL 1953796, at *13 (W.D.N.Y. July 16, 2025) (chastising DHS for “pull[ing] the rug out from under [petitioner]”); Maxine Bernstein, Federal Judge in Oregon: Homeland Security ‘Tricked’ Asylum Seeker Before Arrest at Immigration Court, The Oregonian (July 15, 2025, 10:47 AM), <https://tinyurl.com/mw3w9xdj> (reporting that a federal judge “blasted” the DHS for its “series of procedural errors,” “‘oscillating legal positions’ and clear violation of [a noncitizen]’s due process rights”).

7. A court in this district has also preliminarily stayed the EOIR’s direction to immigration judges to grant dismissals regarding removal proceedings conducted in Manhattan and the Bronx pending further litigation. Op. & Order at 46, African Cmty. Together v. Lyons, 25-cv-6366 (S.D.N.Y. A Sept. 12, 2025), ECF No. 51. And similar challenges to the lawfulness of arrests and dismissals in other immigration courts are pending elsewhere. See, e.g., Compl., A.M. v. U.S. Dep’t of Homeland Sec., 25-cv-2308 (S.D. Cal. Sept. 4, 2025), ECF No. 1

(addressing these arrests and dismissals at the San Diego Immigration Court); Am. Compl., Pablo Sequen v. Albarran, No. 25-cv-6487 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 18, 2025), ECF No. 32 (same for the Concord, Sacramento, and San Francisco Immigration Courts).

8. Beyond the courts, outrage at immigration court arrests, dismissals, and their contested legality has prompted public pushback: protestors are demonstrating outside immigration courts in New York City, San Francisco, and other cities against these new enforcement tactics and attempting to stop ICE from transporting arrested noncitizens to detention centers; clergy, military veterans, political leaders, and other members of the public are accompanying noncitizens to their removal hearings to document, and try to prevent, arrests (and at times are facing arrest themselves for doing so); and editorial boards are calling for Defendants to cease immigration court arrests and dismissals.

9. Immigration court arrests and dismissals have also generated widespread and exceptional media interest. National, state, and local media outlets have published over two hundred articles about these enforcement tactics since May 20, 2025, dozens of which express doubt about their integrity and legality.

10. Amidst this widespread media attention and public outrage, Plaintiffs filed two FOIA requests with the EOIR and five FOIA requests with ICE on July 28, 2025, and July 29, 2025, respectively. The EOIR requests seek agency guidance for courthouse arrests and certain communications with ICE about such arrests and dismissals. The ICE requests seek agency guidance on these topics as well as intra-agency and interagency communications about them.

11. Plaintiffs seek expedited processing of each request to educate the public about guidance for arrests and dismissals, any coordination between the EOIR and ICE, and whether OPLA prosecutors retain discretion to consider dismissal on a case-by-case basis before public debate about this controversial enforcement tactic dissipates and courts rule on its legality.

12. Now, over two months later, having received neither expedited processing nor all records responsive to their requests, Plaintiffs bring this FOIA action for injunctive and other appropriate relief.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13. This court has jurisdiction under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(B) and 28 U.S.C § 1331 since this action arises under FOIA against agencies of the United States.

14. Venue lies in this district under 5 U.S.C § 552(a)(4)(B) and the doctrine of pendent venue: LatinoJustice PRLDEF maintains its principal place of business in this district and the American Immigration Council's claims arise from the same FOIA requests as LatinoJustice's claims.

PARTIES

STATEMENT OF FACTS

I. ICE ARRESTS & DISMISSALS AT IMMIGRATION COURTS

A. Courthouse Arrest Policies & Practices Before the Second Trump Administration

21. For decades, ICE officers largely refrained from civil immigration enforcement actions—including civil immigration arrests—in immigration courts, lest such arrests deter noncitizens from attending removal proceedings, impede the proper functioning of courts, and undermine the fair administration of justice.

22. ICE formalized this longstanding practice in an April 2021 memo that prohibited “civil immigration enforcement action ... in or near a courthouse” (including immigration courts) absent a national security threat; imminent risk of death, violence, physical harm to any person, or destruction of evidence material to a criminal case; or hot pursuit of an individual posing a threat to public safety. U.S. Dep’t of Homeland Sec., Memorandum re: Civil Immigration Enforcement Actions in or near Courthouses (Apr. 27, 2021), <https://tinyurl.com/yw6ucd49>.

23. Approximately two and half years later, the EOIR prohibited the DHS from making civil immigration arrests and taking other civil immigration enforcement actions “in or near an immigration court” except in the limited circumstances described above or where “a safe alternative location for the enforcement action d[id] not exist.” U.S. Dep’t of Just., Exec. Off. for Immigr. Review, Off. of the Chief. Immigr. Judge, PM 23-01, Operating Policies & Procedures Memorandum 23-01: Enforcement Actions in or Near OCIJ Space (Dec. 11, 2023), <https://tinyurl.com/ycyr2hsy>.

B. Trump Administration’s Growing Frustration with Existing Processes Preventing It from Hitting Immigration Arrest and Deportation Targets

24. Before returning to office, Tom Homan and Stephen Miller, surrogates of then-president-elect Trump who now serve as Border Czar and White House Deputy Chief of Staff respectively in the Trump Administration, promised to “take the handcuffs off ICE” and “launch a ‘light speed’ mass deportation campaign.”¹

25. Upon taking office, the Administration ordered ICE to arrest at least 1,200 to 1,500 noncitizens daily and threatened to hold agency officials accountable for missing these targets.²

26. Through February, ICE struggled to meet these arrest targets, prompting the Trump Administration to remove the agency's acting director and other top officials.³

27. By March, the Trump Administration had grown increasingly frustrated with ICE's failure to meet these targets with Tom Homan telling President Trump that ICE "need[s] to increase the arrests," as their numbers were "not high enough."⁴

28. In May, Stephen Miller, the leading architect of President Trump's immigration policy, "laid into top immigration officials" for not hitting their arrest and deportation targets.⁵

29. The Trump Administration then announced an increase of ICE's arrest target to 3,000 arrests for per day and replaced the acting director of its Enforcement and Removal Operations ("ERO") Directorate.⁶

C. Immigration Court Arrests, Dismissals, & Policy Changes

30. Meanwhile, the Administration authorized ICE to conduct civil immigration arrests in and around immigration courts to help it meet its daily arrest quota.

- a. On January 21, 2025, ICE rescinded the April 2021 memo. On an interim basis, it also authorized agency officers or agents to “conduct civil immigration actions in or near courthouses when they have credible information that leads them to believe the targeted [noncitizen(s)] is or will be present at a specific location, and where such action is not precluded by the jurisdiction in which the enforcement action will take place.” U.S. Immigr. & Customs Enf’t, Policy No. 11072.3, Interim Guidance: Civil Immigration Enforcement Actions in or near Courthouses (Jan. 21, 2025).
- b. Seven days later, the EOIR “rescinded and cancelled” its prohibition of “civil immigration actions by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) in or near EOIR space.” U.S. Dep’t of Just., PM 25-06, Cancellation of Operating Policies & Procedures Memorandum 23-01 (Jan. 28, 2025).

31. Around May 20, 2025, as the number of arrests and deportations remained below target, ICE began to arrest noncitizens in immigration courts—where they are easy to locate—and seek their removal through expedited removal⁷—a faster process with fewer due process protections and no pathway to permanent residence.

32. ICE also instructed OPLA prosecutors to identify any noncitizen with upcoming immigration court hearings who would be susceptible to expedited removal if their immigration

⁷ Expedited removal allows immigration officers to remove a noncitizen, who has “not been admitted or paroled in the United States” and “not affirmatively shown, to the satisfaction of an immigration officer” continuous physical presence for at least two years, from the United States “without further hearing or review” unless the noncitizens “indicates either an intention to apply for asylum ... or a fear of persecution.” 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(1)(A).

court cases were dismissed and move to dismiss these cases. It further directed OPLA prosecutors to tell ERO officers about such a noncitizen at least 48 hours in advance of the upcoming hearing and provide “the exact location of the courtroom at which the ... hearing is being held and an estimate of the time frame for the hearing.” It also ordered OPLA prosecutors to give the immigration court “a 24-hour warning” of the planned enforcement operation.⁸

33. On May 27, 2025, ICE published its final guidance for courthouse arrests, wherein it authorized agency officers and agents to “conduct civil immigration enforcement actions in or near courthouses when they have credible information that leads them to believe the targeted [noncitizen(s)] is or will be present at a specific location,” even in jurisdictions whose laws preclude courthouse arrests. U.S. Immigr. & Customs Enf’t, Policy No. 11072.4, Civil Immigration Enforcement Actions in or near Courthouses (May 27, 2025).

34. Around the same time, the EOIR emailed Assistant Chief Immigration Judges (ACIJ)s⁹ new guidance for ICE motions to dismiss and courthouse arrests. Notwithstanding agency regulations and policy requiring parties to make pre-trial motions “in writing and ... state, with particularly the grounds therefor,” 8 C.F.R. 1003.23(a), the guidance allows “DHS Motions to Dismiss [to] be made orally and decided from the bench” without “additional documentation or briefing,” Am. Immigr. Lawyers Ass’n, AILA Doc. 25061204, Practice Alert: EOIR Guidance to Immigration Judges on Dismissals and Other Adjudications (June 12, 2025), <https://tinyurl.com/mr22255e> (hereinafter, “AILA Doc. 25061204”).

35. The guidance also advises that “[t]he motion to dismiss is regulatory” based upon Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) 239.2(a)(6) (Notice to Appear “improvidently issued”) or

⁸ Hamed Aleaziz et al., How ICE is Seeking to Ramp Up Deportations Through Courthouse Arrests, N.Y. Times (May 30, 2025), <https://www.nytimes.com/2025/05/30/us/politics/ice-courthouse-arrests.html>

⁹ ACIJs “oversee the operations of specific immigration courts and adjudication centers.” U.S. Dep’t of Just., Exec. Off. for Immigr. Rev., Immigration Court Practice Manual § 1.3(a)(4) (2023).

INA 239.2(a)(7) (“[C]ircumstances have changed to such an extent that continuation is no longer in the best interest of the government”), id., misstating the standard for dismissal for changed circumstances, cf. 8 C.F.R. 239.2(a)(7), (c) (“Circumstances of the case have changed after the notice to appear was issued to such an extent that continuation is no longer in the best interest of the government” (emphasis added)).

36. The guidance further provides that “[g]enerally, if DHS has met the regulatory burden, the oral motion to dismiss may be granted” without “[a] 10-day response period,” AILA Doc. 25061204, despite agency policy giving noncitizens ten days to respond to such motions, U.S. Dep’t of Just., Exec. Off. for Immigr. Rev., Immigration Court Practice Manual 3.1(b)(1)(A) (2023).

37. Finally, the guidance directs ACIJs to ensure the immigration judges and administrative staff under their supervision “are familiar with Policy Memo 25-06”—which rescinded past guidance barring ICE arrests at immigration courts—and to reach out to the Regional Deputy Chief Immigration Judge supervising them if they “encounter any unusual circumstances with an enforcement action.” AILA Doc. 25061204.

38. Pursuant to this guidance, ACIJs have directed and pressured immigration judges they supervise to grant ICE motions to dismiss unless they are defective.

39. ICE has arrested thousands of noncitizens in immigration courts around the country since May.

40. ICE also filed 6,221 motions to dismiss noncitizens’ removal proceedings between May 20, 2025, and July 28, 2025, almost 81 percent of which were oral.

41. Immigration judges adjudicated 86 percent of these motions on the day filed, granted 86 percent of those motions, and dismissed 4,558 noncitizens' removal proceedings, allowing ICE to put them into expedited removal.

42. ICE is continuing to arrest noncitizens in immigration courts around the country and move to dismiss their removal proceedings.

D. Public Pushback Against Immigration Court Arrests and Dismissals and Court Findings of Illegality

43. Immigration court arrests and dismissals have outraged the American public and prompted them to push back.

44. Protestors are demonstrating against these arrests and dismissals outside immigration courts in New York City, San Francisco, and other cities around the country and attempting to prevent ICE from transferring arrested noncitizens to detention centers.

45. Clergy, military veterans, political leaders, and other members of the public are accompanying noncitizens to immigration courts to document, and try to stop, courthouse arrests; comfort the families that ICE is separating; and inform immigration attorneys of arrests so they can file habeas petitions before ICE transfers arrested noncitizens out of the jurisdiction.

46. U.S. Senators and other members of Congress have written to Defendants to express “grave concern over the disturbing pattern of [agency] operations taking place at immigration court across the country— including recent incidents ... where masked, plainclothes ICE officers detained non-violent, non-criminal immigrants immediately following the dismissal of their existing deportation cases by DHS attorneys.”¹⁰

¹⁰ See, e.g., Letter from Members of Congress to Kristi Noem, Sec’y, Dep’t of Homeland Sec., and Todd Lyons, Acting Dir., U.S. Immigr. & Customs Enf’t (June 5, 2025), <https://www.aila.org/86-representatives-urge-dhs-to-end-arrests-at-immigration-courts>; Letter from U.S. Senators to Kristi Noem, Sec’y, U.S. Dep’t of Homeland Sec., Todd Lyons, Acting Dir., U.S. Immigr. & Customs Enf’t, and Pam Bondi, Att’y Gen., U.S. Dep’t of Just. (July 11, 2025), <https://tinyurl.com/52yrx4p3>.

47. Numerous editorials have decried immigration court arrests and dismissals as “a set-up,”¹¹ “a farce,”¹² “shameful,”¹³ and “seriously disturbing.”¹⁴

48. Lawyers have challenged dozens of immigration court arrests in habeas petitions.

49. Courts considering these petitions have found that the arrests are likely unlawful and ordered ICE to release the arrested noncitizens. See, e.g., Lopez-Arevelo v. Ripa, No. EP-25-cv-337, 2025 WL 2691828, at *1, *12 (W.D. Tex. Sept. 21, 2025); Pablo Sequen v. Kaiser, No. 25-cv-06487, 2025 WL 2691143, at *1-4 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 19, 2025); Lopez Benitez, 2025 WL 2371588, at *1-2, *14-15; Valesquez, 2025 WL 1953796, at *1, *3, *18.

50. Advocates have also sued ICE to stop it from arresting noncitizens at immigration courthouses and the EOIR to prevent it from dismissing noncitizens’ removal proceedings without proper process. See, e.g., Compl., African Cmty. Together v. Lyons, 25-cv-6366 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 1, 2025), ECF No. 1; Compl., A.M. v. U.S. Dep’t of Homeland Sec., 25-cv-2308 (S.D. Cal. Sept. 4, 2025), ECF No. 1; Am. Compl., Pablo Sequen v. Albarran, No. 25-cv-6487 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 18, 2025), ECF No. 32.

51. The City and State of New York filed amicus briefs in support of enjoining these actions in African Communities Together v. Lyons, 25-cv-6366 (S.D.N.Y.), due to their concern that immigration court arrests and dismissals are damaging trust in the justice system as a whole and chilling participation in their state and local court proceedings. See Order, African Cmty.

E. Extensive Media Coverage & Lack of Transparency

53. Immigration court arrests and dismissals and public opposition to this new enforcement tactic are the subject of widespread and exceptional media coverage.

54. Since May 20, 2025, national, state, and local media outlets have published over two hundred articles about arrests and dismissals, many of which have expressed doubts about this new enforcement tactic's legality.

55. Media coverage has discussed Defendants changing policies and guidance to facilitate this enforcement tactic.¹⁵

56. Media coverage has also suggested that immigration judges and OPLA prosecutors no longer retain the discretion to dismiss cases on a case-by-case basis.¹⁶

57. Media coverage has also alluded to the EOIR collaborating and coordinating with ICE to further immigration court arrests and dismissals.¹⁷

¹⁵ See, e.g., Aleaziz et al, supra n.8.

¹⁶ See, e.g., Jose Pagliery, Ex-Immigration Judge Reveals Tactics Used to Arrest Migrants Who Show Up for Court, NOTUS (Aug. 14, 2025, 5:18 AM), <https://www.notus.org/courts/former-immigration-judge-court-hearings-ice-arrest>; Aleaziz et al, supra n.8.

58. Media coverage has also referenced OPLA collaborating and coordinating with ERO to facilitate immigration court arrests.¹⁸

59. Defendants have not disclosed their new policies and guidance for immigration court arrests and dismissals, notwithstanding a statutory duty to do so. See 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(2)(B) (obligating Defendants to make their “statements of policy” available for public inspection).

60. Nor have Defendants clarified the extent that OPLA prosecutors retrain discretion to consider dismissal on case-by-case basis or the extent that the EOIR and ICE and OPLA and ERO are coordinating arrests of noncitizens in immigration courts.

II. EOIR FOIA Requests

61. Amidst the significant, public controversy over immigration court arrests and dismissals, Plaintiffs filed two FOIA requests with the EOIR on July 28, 2025, for its guidance for immigration court arrests and communications with ICE leadership and the ERO about immigration court arrests and dismissals (hereinafter “EOIR Requests”).

62. Plaintiffs seek expedited processing of each EOIR Request so they can educate the public about agency guidance for arrests and any coordination between the EOIR and ICE before debate about the legality of these arrests and dismissals ends and courts address the matter.

Ex. A at 1-2 (footnotes omitted).¹⁹

66. The EOIR EOIR-ERO Comms. Request also seeks expedited processing under 28 C.F.R. § 16.5(e)(1)(ii), (iv), id. at 2-14 & ns. 4-19, so Plaintiffs can educate the public about any coordination between the EOIR and ICE before debate about the legality of immigration court arrests and dismissals ends and courts address the issue.

67. The EOIR denied expedited processing on July 30, 2025. Ex. B.

68. On August 5, 2025, the EOIR informed Plaintiffs of purported defects in the EOIR EOIR-ERO Comms. Request's description of responsive records and advised that it would close the request if Plaintiffs did not provide a response. Ex. C at 1.

69. On August 18, 2025, Plaintiffs responded to the EOIR. Ex. D at 1, 3-4.

70. In their response, Plaintiffs also made two modifications to the EOIR EOIR-ERO Comms. Request to ease any burdens on the EOIR and help the agency process it.

- a. Plaintiffs excluded Signal messages, WhatsApp messages, text messages, and other phone records from the types of responsive records; and
- b. Plaintiffs held the search for, and the processing of, responsive correspondence and other similar communication records in abeyance until the EOIR has processed responsive emails, calendar entries, meeting notes, and Microsoft Teams messages.

Id. at 4.

71. In their response, Plaintiffs also renewed their request for expedited processing: They incorporated their previous request and cited additional media coverage about immigration court arrests and dismissals between July 28, 2025, and August 18, 2025. Id. at 4-6 & ns. 5-8.

72. On August 27, 2025, Plaintiffs appealed the EOIR's expedited processing denial to the DOJ and sought expedited processing of their appeal under 28 C.F.R. § 16.5(e)(1)(ii), (iv). Ex. E.

73. On September 4, 2025, the DOJ remanded Plaintiffs' request for expedited processing to the EOIR "for further processing." Ex. F.

74. In the interim, on August 28, 2025, the EOIR expressed concern about the burdens of searching for records responsive to the EOIR EOIR-ERO Comms. Request and asked Plaintiffs to "provide search terms." Ex. G.

75. On September 8, 2025, Plaintiffs responded to the EOIR's concern and provided a non-exhaustive list of search terms. Ex. H at 4-5.

76. Plaintiffs also supplemented the record for, and reiterated, their request for expedited processing. Id. at 5-9 & ns. 5-8.

77. On October 13, 2025, Plaintiffs followed up on the status of their request for expedited processing and provided additional evidence that expedition is warranted. Ex. I.

78. The EOIR has not issued a determination on the EOIR EOIR-ERO Comms. Request, the fee waiver application therein, or the request for expedited processing on remand.

B. EOIR Arrest Guidance Request (2025-84733)

79. The EOIR received FOIA Request No. 2025-84733 from Plaintiffs on July 28, 2025 (hereinafter “EOIR Arrest Guidance Request”).

80. The EOIR Arrest Guidance Request seeks the following records and a fee waiver:

[A]ll guidance, instructions, policies, and other similar records created by, provided to, or otherwise in the possession of EOIR for ICE enforcement operations or arrests at or near an immigration court issued since January 20, 2025.

Ex. J at 1 (footnote omitted).

81. The EOIR Arrest Guidance Request directs the EOIR to a responsive record: the email guidance discussed in ¶ 37. Id. at 1-2 n.1.

82. The EOIR Arrest Guidance Request also asks for expedited processing under 28 C.F.R. § 16.5(e)(1)(ii), (iv), id. at 2-12 & ns. 2-13, which the EOIR denied on July 30, 2025, Ex. K.

83. The EOIR searched for records responsive to the EOIR Arrest Guidance Request, Ex. L, and located only a two page-email chain denying an attorney’s request for an “emergency liaison meeting to discuss the recent arrests happening in court” in Louisiana, Ex. M.

84. The EOIR’s search did not locate PM 25-06, the guidance email referenced in the EOIR Arrest Guidance Request, and other responsive records.

85. The EOIR issued its final determination on August 11, 2025, wherein it produced the email chain in part, recognized the Council as a “news media requester,” and declined to charge any processing fees. Ex. L.

86. By email on August 13, 2025, Plaintiffs sought clarification from the EOIR about whether the August 11, 2025, production was its final determination on, and production for, the EOIR Arrest Guidance Request. Plaintiffs also asked the EOIR to provide a short description of its search for responsive records and directed the EOIR to responsive records that its search did not locate. Ex. N at 3-4.

87. The EOIR confirmed the following day that the August 11, 2025, determination was its final response and that it “do[es] not have additional records” because the “EOIR does not deal with ICE enforcement.” Id. at 2. The EOIR did not provide the requested description of its search.

88. On August 15, 2025, Plaintiffs appealed the EOIR’s final determination to the DOJ on the grounds that the underlying search was unreasonable. Ex. O at 2-3. Plaintiffs also emailed the EOIR a courtesy copy of the appeal and asked the agency to reconsider the adequacy of its search. Ex. N at 1.

89. That day, Plaintiffs also appealed the EOIR’s expedited processing denial to the DOJ and sought expedited processing of their appeal under 28 C.F.R. § 16.5(e)(1)(ii), (iv). Ex. O at 3-8 & ns. 3-10.

90. The DOJ received Plaintiffs’ appeal on August 15, 2025, and designated it as A-2025-02424. Ex. P.

91. On August 26, 2025, the DOJ refused to expedite processing of A-2025-02424 under 28 C.F.R. § 16.5(e)(1)(ii), (iv). Ex. Q at 2.

92. On September 8, 2025, Plaintiffs asked the DOJ to reconsider its decision to deny expedited processing of A-2025-02424 for lacking consistency with its decision to reverse the EOIR’s expedited processing denial in the EOIR EOIR-ERO Comms. Request and remand that expedite request to the EOIR for further processing. Id. at 1.

93. Neither the DOJ nor the EOIR has taken subsequent action on the EOIR Arrest Guidance Request or A-2025-02424.

III. ICE FOIA Requests

94. Plaintiffs also filed five FOIA requests with ICE on July 29, 2025, for its guidance for dismissals and immigration court arrests, certain OPLA-ERO communications, and correspondence between the EOIR and either OPLA or ERO (hereinafter “ICE Requests”).

95. Plaintiffs seek expedited processing of each ICE Request so they can educate the public about agency guidance for arrests and dismissals, any coordination between the EOIR and either the ERO or OPLA, and the extent to which OPLA prosecutors retain discretion to consider dismissal on a case-by-case basis before debate about the legality of immigration court arrests and dismissals dissipates and courts address the issue.

96. This case challenges ICE’s and the DHS’s handling of the ICE Requests and requests therein for expedited processing, as summarized in the table below.

	Request No.	Request Name	Status of Merits	Status of Expedite Request(s)
A.	2025-ICFO-51684	ICE ERO-EOIR Comms.	No determination issued – request for clarification sent by ICE and addressed by Plaintiffs	No determination issued on expedite request
