

Judge Brian E. Murphy: ELECTRONIC ORDER entered. To preserve the status quo in advance of the Court's full consideration of the merits of Plaintiffs' motion (Dkt. 14 ), the effective date of the decision issued on December 15, 2025, and published at 90 Fed. Reg. 58028 to terminate the designation of Ethiopia for Temporary Protected Status (TPS), effective as of 11:59 P.M. on February 13, 2026, is hereby STAYED subject to further Order of this Court or higher courts. During the period of the STAY of the termination, the termination shall be null, void, and of no legal effect. Thus, the legal consequences of being in TPS status based on Ethiopia's designation shall continue to apply, including being eligible for work authorization and having protection against deportation and detention based on TPS. The legal consequences of having a pending TPS application based on Ethiopia's designation shall also continue to apply, including eligibility for work authorization and having protection against deportation based on a pending TPS application. The hearing scheduled for February 3, 2026 is CANCELED and will be rescheduled at a later time. The parties are ordered to confer and submit a Joint Proposed Schedule regarding production of the certified administrative record and a proposed briefing schedule no later than Thursday, February 5, 2026.
