DEADLINE FOR APPEALING AN IMMIGRATION JUDGE DECISION TO THE BOARD OF IMMIGRATION APPEALS

PURPOSE:	To remind Immigration Judges of the current appellate deadline for appeals to the Board of Immigration Appeals (Board)
OWNER:	Office of the Director
AUTHORITY:	8 C.F.R. § 1003.0(b)
CANCELLATION:	None

EOIR has received unconfirmed¹ reports that some Immigration Judges (IJs) are informing parties² that the deadline to appeal a decision of the IJ is 10 days, rather than 30 days. Although EOIR published an interim final rule on February 6, 2026, making such a change, the change was not scheduled to become effective until March 9, 2026. See Appellate Procedures for the Board of Immigration Appeals, 91 Fed. Reg. 5267 (Feb. 6, 2026) (“IFR”). Furthermore, on March 8, 2026, that portion of the IFR changing the deadline from 30 days to 10 days for many categories³ of appeals was vacated, see generally Amica Ctr. for Immig. Rts. V. EOIR, ---F.Supp.3d---, 2026 WL 662494 (Mar. 8, 2026), and, thus, is not in effect.⁴ Consequently, no IJ should be informing either party that the appellate deadline for the Board is only 10 days, and all relevant IJ orders should reflect the correct deadline.⁵

Additionally, EOIR has received unconfirmed reports that its Automated Case Information System website (ACIS), <https://acis.eoir.justice.gov/en/>, also reflects a 10-day appellate deadline, rather

² Although appellate deadlines generally apply to both parties, only one party has reported a concern.

³ The IFR did not alter the 30-day appellate deadline for most cases involving an asylum application.

⁴ The vacatur does not affect similar administrative appellate deadlines within other components of EOIR, including OCAHO’s longstanding 10-day administrative appellate deadline, see 28 C.F.R. § 68.54(a).

than the correct 30-day deadline. Although a disclaimer⁶ on that website, which requires acceptance in order to access it, makes clear that information on the website is not legally binding, EOIR nevertheless strives to present accurate information to the public. If the ACIS website does, in fact, reflect incorrect appellate deadlines, then EOIR's Office of Information Technology (OIT) should have updated it after the order vacating the relevant part of the IFR was issued. Nevertheless, OIT will update the ACIS website, if necessary, immediately.
