 This guidance supersedes the Update on Termination of TPS for Syria message posted on July 17, 2026.

Alert: After reviewing country conditions and consulting with the appropriate U.S. government agencies, former Secretary of Homeland Security Kristi Noem determined Syria no longer met the conditions for designation for Temporary Protected Status (TPS). See Termination of the Designation of Syria of Temporary Protected Status, 90 Fed. Reg. 45398 (Sept. 22, 2025). Syria's TPS designation and related benefits were slated to terminate on Nov. 21, 2025. On Nov. 19, 2025, the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York issued an order staying the TPS Syria termination. Dahlia Doe v. Noem, 25-cv-8686 (S.D.N.Y.).

What this means for Forms I-766, Employment Authorization Documents (EADs):

The validity of Employment Authorization Documents (EADs) issued under the TPS designation for Syria with an original expiration date of Sept. 30, 2025, Mar. 31, 2024, Sept. 30, 2022, or Mar. 31, 2021, is extended per court order. Dahlia Doe v. Noem, 25-cv-8686 (S.D.N.Y.). The extension is limited relief until the U.S. Supreme Court's mandate issues in Mullin v. Doe, 609 U.S. ____ (2026), reversing the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York's judgement postponing the termination of Syria's TPS designation.

When completing the Expiration Date (if any) fields on Form I-9, input "as per court order" and "July 27, 2026" in Section 2 along with a note in the Additional Information box. Employers may
