Overview	Application for Naturalization			The Application for Naturalization is used to become a U.S. citizen through naturalization, which is the process you take to voluntarily become a U.S. citizen if you were born outside of the United States. In general, you may be eligible if you can show continuous U.S. residence for three or five years, are at least 18 years old, and demonstrate good moral character and loyalty to the U.S. Constitution. You must also take the English and civics test, unless you qualify for an English language exemption or a medical disability exception.	The Application for Naturalization is used to become a U.S. citizen through naturalization, which is the process you take to voluntarily become a U.S. citizen if you were born outside of the United States. In general, you may be eligible if you can show continuous U.S. residence for three or five years, are at least 18 years old, and demonstrate good moral character and attachment to the principles of the U.S. Constitution. You must also take the English and civics test, unless you qualify for an English language exemption or a medical disability exception. If your parent (including legal adoptive parent) is a U.S. citizen by birth, or was naturalized before you reached your 18th birthday, you may already be a U.S. citizen. Before you file this application, please visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov for more information and to review the instructions for Form N-600, Application for Certificate of Citizenship.
	Before you start your application	Eligibility		You will need to select your basis for eligibility after you start your application.	You will need to select your basis for eligibility after you start your application. You should not file this application if any of the following statements apply to you: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. You have not met the eligibility requirements for naturalization based on your filing category; 2. You have acquired U.S. citizenship through one or both of your parents; 3. You are under 18 years of age (unless you have served honorably as a member of the Selected Reserve of the Ready Reserve or in an active-duty status in the U.S. armed forces during a designated period of hostilities, including the period beginning on September 11, 2001); 4. You are more than 90 days from completing your required period of continuous residence as a lawful permanent resident (if required); 5. You were convicted of desertion from the U.S. armed forces during a time of war; 6. You were convicted of murder (at any time) or an aggravated felony (on or after November 29, 1990); 7. You committed, ordered, incited, assisted, or otherwise participated in the commission of genocide, torture, extrajudicial killing, or Nazi persecution; 8. You served as a foreign government official and were responsible for or directly carried out particularly severe violations of religious freedom; 9. You are not willing to take the Oath of Allegiance (or a modified version, if qualified); or 10. You presently reside outside the United States and are not: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> A. A member of the U.S. armed forces; B. The spouse of a member of the U.S. armed forces who is residing outside the U.S. with the member in marital union and is authorized to accompany the member pursuant to the member's official orders; or C. The spouse of a U.S. citizen working for a qualified employer outside the United States.
		Fee		The filing fee is $640. There is no filing fee if you are a member or veteran of any branch of the U.S. Armed Forces filing on your own behalf. Refund Policy USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service. Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.
		Filing online		Submitting your application online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information and cost the same.	If you cannot undergo any part of the naturalization examination because of a physical or developmental disability or mental impairment, you may have a legal guardian, a surrogate, or an eligible designated representative complete the naturalization process for you.
		Documents you may need		We will automatically determine which documents you need to provide us as you fill out your application. The other documents you need will depend on the information you provide in the application, such as your personal history, family, and circumstances. After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign in to your account often to check your case status and read any important messages from USCIS. If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or a Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.

		Provide your biometrics	Attend your biometric services appointment	A few weeks after you submit your application, we will contact you to schedule an appointment at an Application Support Center near you. At the appointment, we will get your fingerprints, photograph, and signature.	After submitting your application, you may receive a biometric services appointment notice. At the appointment, you will provide your biometrics so that USCIS can verify your identity, obtain additional information and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your application.
		Attend your interview		After your biometrics appointment, we will schedule your interview at a local USCIS field office (unless you qualify for a special accommodation). At the interview, you will answer questions about your application and take the civics and English tests as required.
		Take the Oath of Allegiance		Once your application is approved, you will be ready to take the Oath of Allegiance. At your naturalization ceremony, you will return your Permanent Resident Card (Green Card), answer questions about your activity since the interview, take the Oath of Allegiance, and get your Certificate of Naturalization.	If your application is approved, you will be ready to take the Oath of Allegiance. At your naturalization ceremony, you will return your Permanent Resident Card (Green Card), answer questions about your activity since the interview, take the Oath of Allegiance, and get your Certificate of Naturalization.
	Completing your form online	Complete the Getting Started section first		You should answer all questions in the Getting Started section first so we can best customize the rest of your online form experience.
		Provide as many responses as you can	Fill out your form completely.	You should provide as many responses as you can. Incomplete fields or sections and missing information can slow down the process after you submit your form.	If you do not completely fill out this application, you will not establish a basis for your eligibility and USCIS may reject your application.
		We will automatically save your responses		We will automatically save your information when you select next to go to a new page or navigate to another section of the form. We will save your information for 30 days from today, or from the last time you worked on the form.
		How to continue filling out your form		After you start your form, you can sign in to your account to continue where you left off.
