Domestic A/G/NATO Visa Application

Instructions

Welcome to the Consular Electronic Application Center Instructions Page. This online A/G/NATO Visa Application can be completed to initiate the application process.

Do NOT complete this application, the DS-1648, if you will be outside the United States at the time your passport is submitted for visa issuance. If you are outside the United States at that time, your DS-1648 application will be refused, and you will need to complete the DS-160 and apply for your visa abroad.

What you need:

1. 128-bit encryption support
2. JavaScript must be enabled
3. This website is designed to be accessed using Chrome, Edge, or Firefox only.

Note: The time to download each page may vary depending on the speed of your Internet connection. Please be patient.

Instructions for completing the online A/G/NATO Visa Application:

1. Enter the information requested into the appropriate spaces on each page. Please answer all questions. Your answers must be in English and must use English characters. Letters like ñ, é, ü, ç are not recognized by the system. Please enter names like Muñoz and Sémonin as Munoz and Semonin.
2. Review the information you entered for accuracy.
3. Print the confirmation page.

Notice 22 C.F.R.6 41.103 requires an applicant to sign and submit his or her own nonimmigrant visa application unless otherwise exempt. Although the applicant may receive assistance from a third party in preparing the application, the applicant is required to click the "Sign and Submit" button at the end of the application. The applicant's failure to sign the application may result in a termination of the application.

For site management, information is collected for statistical purposes. The Department of State Web Site uses software programs to create summary statistics for such purposes as assessing what information is of most and least interest or identifying system performance or problem areas. The following is the type of information collected about your visit to the web site: the name of the Internet domain from which you access State Department web sites (for example, "aol.com" if you are connecting from America Online) and the date and time you access our site.

For site security purposes and to ensure that this service remains available to all users, the State Department uses software programs to monitor network traffic to identify unauthorized attempts to upload or change information or otherwise cause damage. Unauthorized attempts to upload information or change information on this service are strictly prohibited and may be punishable under the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act of 1986. Information also may be used for authorized law enforcement investigations. Except for the above purposes, no other attempts are made to identify individual users or their usage habits.

Unauthorized attempts to upload information and/or change information on these web sites are strictly prohibited and are subject to prosecution under the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act of 1986 and Title 18 U.S.C. Sec.1001 and 1030.

Furthermore, the Department of State assures that it will not

- obtain personal identifying information about you through your use of this system, unless you choose to provide such information
- share any information it receives with any outside parties, except where permitted by Section 222(f) of the Immigration and Nationality Act or, where applicable, the Privacy Act.

Application Information

Please record your Application ID in a safe and secure place.

If there are technical issues with the system, or you want to complete your application some other time, you can save your work and later, start where you left off. In order to access your application later, however, you will need: (1) your Application ID, and (2) the answer to the security question that you will choose on this page.

To choose a security question, pick the one you like the best from the dropdown list, type your answer to that question in the box below, and click "Continue." Remember: In order to access your application later, you will need to know the answer exactly as you wrote it on this page.

Your Application ID is:

Date
05-JUN-2025

Print Application ID

You can also use your Application ID and security question to retrieve your Confirmation Page after you have submitted your application, or to use your previously provided application information to complete a new application at a later date.

Note: Electronically submitting your DS-1648 online application is the FIRST STEP in the visa application process. The next step is to review the internet page of the embassy or consulate where you plan to apply for your visa. Most visa applicants will need to schedule a visa interview, though some applicants may qualify for visa renewal. The embassy or consulate information may include specific local instructions about scheduling interviews, submitting your visa application, and other frequently asked questions.
