H-1B REGISTRATION

U.S. Citizenship

H-1B Registration

U.S. employers or agents who seek to obtain H-1B nonimmigrant classification on behalf of an individual subject to the H-1B numerical allocations will need to submit a registration during a designated registration period, unless the registration requirement is suspended by USCIS.

You may submit registrations for up to 250 beneficiaries for the same registrant (employer/agent) per submission.

The annual initial registration period will last a minimum of 14 calendar days and will start at least 14 calendar days before the earliest date on which H-1B cap-subject petitions may be filed for a particular fiscal year.

If a sufficient number of registrations projected as needed to reach the H-1B regular cap have not been received within the 14 days initial registration period, we will notify all registrants who have properly registered that their registrations have been selected. We will keep the registration open past the initial registration period until we have determined that we have received enough registrations projected as needed to meet the H-1B regular cap.

After the end of the initial registration period, if USCIS has received more registrations than needed to meet the projected number of registrations to reach the regular cap, we will randomly select a sufficient number of registrations. A similar process will apply for those who may be eligible for the numerically limited cap exemption. A Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, may then be filed by the employer based on a selected registration to request classification of the beneficiary as an H-1B worker.

Before you start your registration

Eligibility

A U.S. employer or agent may file H-1B cap petitions, and as such, will be required to submit an H-1B Registration to be eligible to file the H-1B cap petition.

U.S. Employers: Person or entity in U.S. that:

- Engages a person to work in the U.S.;
- Has an employer-employee relationship with the beneficiary; and
- Has an EIN.

Agents: A U.S. individual or company in business as an agent may file an H-1B Registration for workers who are traditionally self-employed or workers who use agents to arrange short-term employment on their behalf with numerous employers, and in cases where a foreign employer authorizes the agent to act on its behalf.

Duplicates

A registrant (employer or agent) may only submit one registration per beneficiary in any fiscal year. If a registrant submits more than one registration per beneficiary in the same fiscal year, all registrations filed by that registrant related to the beneficiary for the fiscal year will be considered invalid.

Fee

Fee: $10 per registration

We will send you to Pay.gov, our safe, secure payment website, to make your payment and submit your registration online. If your current document is incorrect due to a typographical or clerical error caused by USCIS, there is no fee.

Refund Policy

USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition, or request. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service. You further agree that the filing fee, biometric fee, and any other paid costs related to this financial transaction are final and not refundable. Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.

AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this form is collected under the Immigration and Nationality Act sections 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) and 214(a), (c)(1), (g); 8 U.S. Code 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) and 1184(a), (c)(1), and (g); and the regulatory authority under 8 Code of Federal Regulations 214.2(h).

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this form is to register prospective beneficiaries for the annual H-1B cap selection process. Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative

The Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative is for attorneys and accredited representatives to provide information to establish their eligibility to appear for and act on behalf of an applicant, petitioner, requester, beneficiary or derivative, or respondent in immigration matters.

An attorney or accredited representative must complete and submit a new G-28 form for each client case. The G-28 can be started along with a client's new case or it can be added to a client's already-submitted case. USCIS will only recognize a completed G-28 once the client has reviewed and signed the form.

Before you start the G-28

Who should complete this form

You should only complete this form if you are an attorney or accredited representative as defined in 8 CFR 1.2 and 292.1(a)(4) or 1292.

Law students and graduates

If you are a law student or law graduate who is working under the direct supervision of an attorney or accredited representative, you will need to provide your name on the form.

Foreign attorneys

If you are an attorney not licensed to practice law in the United States, you should not use this form. Instead, you will need to file the Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney in Matters Outside the United States (G-281).

Other representatives

If you are seeking to appear as a reputable individual as defined in 8 CFR 292.1(a)(3), you should not use this form. Instead, you will need to seek permission from DHS to appear with your client.

After you complete the G-28

Your client adds you as his or her representative

After you complete the G-28 and provide your signature, we will give you a one-time passcode to give to your client. Your client will need to sign in to his or her USCIS account (or create a new one) and enter this code to officially add you as a representative.

Your client reviews and signs the G-28 (and his or her form, for new cases)

After you are finished filling out the G-28 and your client adds you as a representative, he or she will need to review the information provided in the form.

If all the information is correct, your client will accept the G-28 and then provide his or her signature. If the information is incorrect, your client will decline the G-28 and we will send it back to you to make updates. If you are also filing a new case for your client, your client will need to review the information provided in each form. He or she can accept or decline each form.

You submit and pay for your client's online form (for new cases)

Once your client reviews and signs the online form, a link will appear on your account home page that takes you to a page to submit the G-28 along with your client's online form, and pay the fee for your client's form (if there is one).

H-1B Registration

U.S. employers or agents who seek to obtain H-1B nonimmigrant classification on behalf of an individual subject to the H-1B numerical allocations will need to submit a registration during a designated registration period, unless the registration requirement is suspended by USCIS.

The annual initial registration period will last a minimum of 14 calendar days and will start at least 14 calendar days before the earliest date on which H-1B cap-subject petitions may be filed for a particular fiscal year.

If a sufficient number of registrations projected as needed to reach the H-1B regular cap have not been received within the 14 days initial registration period, we will notify all registrants who have properly registered that their registrations have been selected. We will keep the registration open past the initial registration period until we have determined that we have received enough registrations projected as needed to meet the H-1B regular cap.

After the end of the initial registration period, if USCIS has received more registrations than needed to meet the projected number of registrations to reach the regular cap, we will randomly select a sufficient number of registrations. A similar process will apply for those who may be eligible for the numerically limited cap exemption. A Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, may then be filed by the employer based on a selected registration to request classification of the beneficiary as an H-1B worker.

Before you start your registration

Eligibility

A U.S. employer or agent may file H-1B cap petitions, and as such, will be required to submit an H-1B Registration to be eligible to file the H-1B cap petition.

U.S. Employers: Person or entity in U.S. that: Engages a person to work in the U.S.; Has an employer-employee relationship with the beneficiary; and Has an FEIN.

Agents: A U.S. individual or company in business as an agent may file an H-1B Registration for workers who are traditionally self-employed or workers who use agents to arrange short-term employment on their behalf with numerous employers, and in cases where a foreign employer authorizes the agent to act on its behalf.

Duplicates

A registrant may only submit one registration per beneficiary in any fiscal year. If a registrant submits more than one registration per beneficiary in the same fiscal year, all those registration will be considered invalid.

Fee

Fee: $10 per registration

We will send you to Pay.gov, our safe, secure payment website, to make your payment and submit your registration online. If your current document is incorrect due to a typographical or clerical error caused by USCIS, there is no fee.

Refund Policy

USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition, or request. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service. You further agree that the filing fee, biometric fee, and any other paid costs related to this financial transaction are final and not refundable. Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.

Once you finish below, your representative will need to pay for and officially submit the registration to USCIS. He or she will also submit the G-28, which establishes your representative's eligibility to appear and act on your behalf in USCIS immigration matters.

Once your representative has submitted your registration, you should check your home page for any updates or actions on your case.

Pay for and submit your registration

The final step to submit your H-1B Registration is to pay the required fee.

Your registration fee is: $30.00

Refund Policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition, or request. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service.

We will send you to Pay.gov — our safe, secure payment website — to make your payment and submit your registration online.

Here are the steps in the payment and submission process:

1. Provide your billing information on Pay.gov
2. Provide your credit card or U.S. bank account information
3. Submit your payment

When you have paid your fee, your registration will be submitted.

Pay.gov will redirect you to a uscis.gov confirmation screen. You can track the status of your registration through your USCIS online account.
